

COLIN HOLBROW, MNRM, CPCC, PCC
Executive Coach

Colin is a Coaching Partner of Corporate Symphony International and specializes in working with senior executives, rising leadership stars and management teams. Colin provides individual and team systems coaching in the areas of leadership, emotional intelligence, interpersonal conflict, presentation and communication skills and organizational learning development.

Colin has worked with an extensive list of public, private and NGO organizations. Colin has coached some 200 individuals as well as a number of management teams. He has developed a wealth of expertise and experience as a coaching practitioner as well as a trainer and facilitator. Colin left the public sector 13 years ago to start an independent consulting company. He subsequently embarked on becoming a professional Executive and Organizational Team Coach in 2002.

Colin is an accomplished speaker and workshop facilitator and holds the Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) designation with Toastmasters International. His client base is Canada and the USA.

Colin holds a Masters degree in Natural Resource Management. He received his coach training and certification (CPCC) with the acclaimed Coaches Training Institute. He holds his professional coaching (Professional Certified Coach or PCC) accreditation with the International Coach Federation. In addition, Colin has received advanced training from the Centre for Right Relationship and is experienced in working with groups and teams from a systems perspective.

Colin is a certified EQ-i®/Emotional Power® Coach. He is a certified practitioner with The Leadership Circle™ and authorized facilitator with Team Coaching International.

Colin's coaching has been recognized through the PRISM award for leadership excellence by the International Coach Federation (2008) and Toronto Chapter (2007). He was a top finalist for the 2009 Canadian Coach of the Year award.

Colin has been married for over 20 years and has two very active teenagers and a very lazy cat. He volunteers in the community through coaching competitive and recreational soccer and hockey in addition to youth leadership initiatives.
